

Puffin, Otter and Koala

Home Learning Grid version 6

Make a shape poem about Victorian inventions. You could present it using your word-processing skills.	Find a photo or picture of a Victorian building, house or factory. Write about it.	Find out the names of some famous people from the Victorian era. Create a WORDLE file.	Write a story about a child from the Victorian Times. It could be a ghost story.
Find out about money in the Victorian Times. Draw/print and label some of the coins. What could they buy?	Do some research about transport in Victorian times. How is it different to how we get around now and why?	Pick a times table and chant it in Victorian Style. Did it help you learn it? Teach it to someone else.	Find out about mathematics in the Victorian Times. Practise writing some numbers and sum!
Make a poster about safety with electricity around the home – for a younger brother, sister or cousin.	Have a look at all the lights in your house. Check out the lightbulbs! Draw what type they are. Why might they be different?	Look at websites and books about inventions and electricity. Write a little report for a children's magazine.	ASK PERMISSION!! Take apart a torch or battery powered toy. Draw & label a diagram of how it works
Find out about the Royal Family in the Victorian Era. Try and create a family tree.	Do some research. Who were the famous inventors of the time? Write a biography of one.	Make a Victorian Inventions wordsearch or crossword.	Research some of the work by Renoir, Pissarro or Cezanne. Print some of the pictures and write why you like them.
Use some different items to create a picture using printing. It could even be your fingers or Custard Cream biscuits!!	http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/L._S._Lowry Find out about the artist Lowry. Look at his pictures of the industrial revolution. Can you draw a picture in that style?	Make a PowerPoint about life for children in Victorian schools.	http://resources.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/homework/victorians/toys.htm Do some research about Victorian toys. Design and label a Victorian playroom or nursery.
Make a model car. You could use boxes, Lego or other construction toys. Try and make it look old fashioned.	Go on!! Invent something amazing! http://www.inventivekids.com/category/young-inventors-2/	http://www.museumofchildhood.org.uk/learning/things-to-do Make a simple Victorian toy using card and paper.	www.dacorumheritage.org.uk/sampler.htm Find out what a sampler is and create a simple cross-stitch.