

Make an acrostic, sound verb poem or Wordle about rivers or water.	Research some famous rivers from around the world, perhaps you could create a top trumps game or present it as a fact file.	Make a boat from natural materials to go on a river journey. Remember to test that it floats.	Find out the length of 5 different rivers make and answer some comparison questions such as, how much longer is ....to....?
Write a story from the point of view of a creature that lives in the river.	Find and name some of the coasts/beaches across Britain. Challenge: How clean/polluted are they?	Come up with some ways to save water in your household (eg: Turning the water off when cleaning your teeth). Then design a poster to encourage people to follow your example.	Find the height of 5 mountains from around the world and put these into a Bar chart or Pictogram (Think carefully about your scale and labelling your axis).
Research more about Michael Morpurgo. Present your findings as an autobiography or as a timeline of dates and titles, or any way of your choice.	Research some facts about plants that grow in or near water.	Look at how all 3 Artists below have been inspired by water: David Hockney - A Bigger Splash Roy Lichtenstein - Water Lilies with Cloud Georgia O'Keeffe - Sun Water Maine Make a painting/drawing/collage inspired by them.	Choose the largest bowl from your kitchen estimate how many ml it can hold, and then use a measuring jug to find the accurate measurement. Repeat with 4 more containers.
Write a letter to someone you haven't seen in a while. Let them know what you've been up to or your hopes for after lockdown.	Keep a diary for the week of what you have been doing. Include what you eat, what home learning you do and any other fun things you get up to.	Write a recipe for something you cook this week. Include all the measurements (ml, g).	Create your own scavenger hunt to do inside or in the garden and see if you or your family can find everything on it.
Tune in to Joe Wicks PE on youtube at 9am.	Check out the scouts for some great indoor activities. https://www.scouts.org.uk/the-great-indoors/	Hunt for all the numbers you can find around the house. Can you add them all together or experiment with the 4 operations?	Start a museum project. Research something you're interested in (art, animals, history) and find out about it, write a small paragraph / sentence about each thing you would display in your museum.