

Puffin, Otter and Koala

Home Learning Grid version 2

Make an acrostic or shape poem about plants or a garden. You could present it using your word-processing skills.	Find a photo or take a virtual tour of a historical garden and write an elaborate description about it.	Write a biography about a famous gardener: e.g. Alan Titchmarsh,	Write a story about how chocolate is made! It actually comes from plants!
Find some brilliant plant life vocabulary. Create a WORDLE online Print it in shades of green.	Make a data collection sheet. Do a survey about the sorts of chocolate that people like to eat in your family, by emailing or texting. Draw a Graph!	Find the tallest plant and the shortest plants in your garden. Measure them. Find the difference between them	Make a data collection sheet. Do a survey about the birds that visit your garden or area. Watch them! Find out what types of birds they are.
Make a PowerPoint presentation about plants found all around the world.	Plant some seeds. Keep watering them. Take measurements of how they are growing. Keep a diary!	Go out and do some gardening. Find out the names of some plants. You could do this with a relative!	Get some chocolate and create an experiment about melting. What temperature does it melt at?
Research some facts about plants which grow in different countries around the world.	Make a plant life vocabulary word search or crossword.	Do some research about unusual plants...carnivorous plants/cacti or giant trees.	Can you find about how gardens are used as part of religious beliefs.
Create a collage with natural items - use leaves, petals, seeds and even the bark of trees	Find out about pointillism. Create a green landscape in this style. This could be any time of day!	Design an imaginary garden, include all the things that you would really like in a garden.	Research some of the work by Andy Goldworthy. Make a sculpture and photograph it.
Create something with melted chocolate. Using rice crispies, corn flakes or oatmeal.	Make a bird box for the garden. Wait and see if any birds visit or nest in it. Photograph the event.	Find a recipe that uses honey. Cakes or cookies! Bring some to share.	Choose some different green thread, wool and fabric. Create a weaving using shades of green.