

Puffin, Otter and Koala Home Learning Grid version 5 Monday 8th June

Find out about Asterix and his adventures with the Romans (comic books/clips on youtube)	Find a photo or picture of a famous Italian landmark (e.g. Tower of Pisa) and write an elaborate description about it.	Find a traditional Italian recipe and try it out! Review your dish with your family.	Research a traditional Roman recipe and try it out.
Choose 3 or 4 different types of ice cream (gelato). Do a taste test with yourself and your family. Make a graph of the scores.	Create a tally chart about Italian cars people like (e.g. Ferrari) then draw a graph /pictogram to show results	Write a speech persuading the Romans not to invade Britain.	Write a story/myth about a Roman god eg: Mars (God of war), Jupiter (King of the gods) or Mercury (messenger god).
Research where some famous volcanoes are. Are there any near Italy? (Can you put them on a map?)	Build a volcano! What happens when you add baking powder, washing up liquid and vinegar?  Find the instructions here: http://www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc/makes/wild-volcano	Create a tourist brochure for the Italian mountains (Dolomites). Where are they? What can you do there? When can you go? What features can you see there?	Take a virtual tour of Roman sites in Britain: https://www.historic-uk.com/HistoryMagazine/DestinationsUK/RomanSites/
Research some facts about a country that used to be under Roman rule in the Roman Empire (hint: Britain was one)	Find out about famous Roman people (local or from anywhere in the Empire)	Research about the fighting formations of the Roman army -draw and label.	Find out the Roman numerals to 10. Can you use them to do your number bonds to 10 with them? $1+9=10$ Can you make up some sums for your family to work out?
Create a collage with pasta - to do with modern or Ancient Rome (Leaning Tower of Pasta!!)	Find out about Roman Mosaics. Create one of your own- using a variety of resources	Design and make your own Roman shield	Learn some Italian words...Ciao = Hi  You can teach the class when you return to school.